FESTIVAL SEASON

The fall means festival season for food lovers in Pensacola!

Executive Chef Gus Silivos joined his team of Pensacola Celebrity Chefs in September at the Taste of Pensacola Beach. After serving as a judge for a cooking competition, Chef Silivos prepared an Octopus dish alongside his Celebrity Chef colleagues for those lucky enough to score a sold-out tasting ticket at the beach.

This past weekend Chef Silivos was joined by our Chef de Cuisine, Brandon Melton, for a cooking demonstration as part of the Pensacola Seafood Festival. The Chefs demonstrated to the audience the cooking techniques used for creating a Candied Lobster and Mango Salad, as well as Grilled Grouper with Red Pepper Katiki and Zucchini Chips. While not currently on the Skopelos menu, don't be surprised to see them as a daily feature in the near future!

This coming weekend, Chef Silivos is headed to the Pensacola Greek Festival, taking place Friday-Sunday at the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church located at 1720 W. Garden St. Admission is always free! For more information and details, please visit the festival website .

SKOPELOS BUZZ

Legendary football Coach Bobby Bowden stopped by Skopelos to serve as Key Note Speaker for the Pensacola Chamber of Commerce's 126th Annual Meeting. Coach Bowden showed excitement to chat with Chef Silivos, recalling his fond memories of stopping at Skopelos whenever he visited Pensacola. We were happy to welcome him at our new location!

Hall of Fame UFC fighter Royce Gracie was another familiar face joining us in September. Gracie enjoyed lunch at Skopelos and ended his nights with a stay here at New World Inn. Our entire staff was humbled by the kindness of this UFC icon.

NEW WORLD INN FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Do you have friends and family visiting during the Holidays? No room at your inn? Let us welcome them into ours!

Palafox Street is something special during the Holidays, and there's no better place for out-of-towners to stay than downtown Pensacola. To reserve your room at New World Inn, please call us at (850) 432-4111. Room reservations are also available directly through our website.
